Now, some Aussie flavours entice the city

Chennai's tastes in the culinary space has become truly global today what with the many international food brands making their way to the city and enticing Chennai foodies with their goodies. And the newest one to hit the town is Patissez at the Phoenix Marketcity. Shreyas Asthana, its owner, says, "Patissez, the original food sensation in Canberra (Australia) by Anna Petridis, is now in Chennai. The must-try range of freshly handmade freakshakes, gooey chocolate fudge, marshmallows and more are the delicious highlights of this place. We also offer other amazing dishes from lasagne to burgers by our in-house world-class chefs like Navin." Bring it on, we say!
