

Ministry of Drinks

When a couple of accomplished food lovers stumble upon a restaurant that tastes better than ever yet the industry continues to be so confusing. While pondering about their futures in a parking lot, they decide it's time to do something about it.

Chef Mani & Chef Navin are very famous restaurant consultants in Chennai, who have helped and guided many famous brands to the road of success have finally come up with its own Ministry of Drinks, a trendy pub located in Nandanam area, which is also very close to the metro. It serves a mix of Indian, Oriental and Continental cuisine with a twist that goes brilliantly with beverage chosen by you.

The quirky interiors along with a high table, bar stools that sit in the middle of the dining area which is surrounded by a snooker table, large projector screen, a DJ station will give one a very relaxed yet fun environment to enjoy and let yourself lose with your gang.

Mocktail

The ethos of this new brand shines through their offerings, alcoholic sip ups which is a blend of vodka with four different fruity flavours to choose from for Chennaiites to try. The highlight of the joint is the bar tenders making your drinks which will make you pull out your phones to take a boomerang or videos. The entire vibe of the place will scream the perfect hangout to one. Step into the vibrant world of Ministry of drinks and let lose!
